"I have over 10 workshops in Step Change's office a year and the spaces never fail to facilitate and inspire creative, fresh thinking."

"They have everything from smart boards to endless whiteboard space, and as a business owner in a rapidly growing company, having a space that offers me everything I would ever need to have a great offsite meeting is fantastic."

"Do yourself a favour and ask them for a keynote to warm up the room and set the vibe for the day!"

World-class Speakers

So, you're looking for a speaker who can touch, move, and inspire your team. But how do you know you're getting the very best?

Past performance, track record, and a proven ability to do so is the only way. So, I hope you won't mind if we tell a little bit about our track record.

For three out of four years, we were named Speaker of the Year for the world's number 1 CEO network, The Executive Connection. That's a feat that no other speaker has ever come close to, and on their books are a hundred of the top speakers in the country, the names of the types of people that get paid up to $25,000 for each speaking engagement. So to be crowned the top of those speakers — not once but three times — spells out our track record worth booking.

Our speaking engagement, many times over, have been voted the most exciting and the most invigorating session of conferences like Mumbrella360 and at industry conferences across financial services, consulting, innovation, professional services, manufacturing, and many others. And that's what you're looking for, right?

Not just speaker with exceptional credentials, but a speaker paired with proven IP and frameworks that matches what's hot for your team and delivers on-the-day insights and inspiration in their area of interest in a fun, engaging, and challenging way.

All of your speaking topics are backed by 800 slides of IP, tools, and processes, we can create bespoke content journeys and value adds for your teams before, during, and after the session, making sure that their experience lives on for months after the session.

"WHO COULD ASK FOR A BETTER RESULT?"

"Step Change keynote speaker at HP's VIP Conference in Singapore, attended by 550 guests. The feedback has been great, and people keep saying things like 'as that guy Adam said' as a preface to a wonderfully predatory comment. Who could ask for a better result than that? Once again, a huge thank you for your support at our VIP event

Lisa Watson
Chair of the Direct Marketing
Association of Singapore
